HENNE IN EIU HOMECOMING PLAY

CHARLESTON, IL--Michele Henne, daughter of Vernace Henne of Iuka and Maryann Wyatt of Mt. Carmel, appeared in Eastern Illinois University's recent Homecoming play, "HAVER'S HOLLER, W.V."

This original musical was written by two collaborating faculty members of Eastern's new College of Arts and Humanities, Marjorie A. Duehmig of the theatre arts department and Henry Butler of the music department.

Henne played the roles of Brenda Sullivan, Mrs. Leann Weston and Nadine in this production about changing the cycle of how you live.

A 1986 graduate of Salem High School, she is a senior at Eastern majoring in English and art with an art history option.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
